Faculty of Arts Humanities and Social Sciences (HSS) Symposium Grant

TERMS OF REFERENCE & INSTRUCTIONS

Background and Priorities:

Funding for the Faculty of Arts HSS Symposium Grants program is made available through the annual SSHRC Institutional Award. This award is specifically designed to promote research in the Humanities and Social Sciences. Grants are available to help defray the costs of organizing the symposium. These symposia are meant to focus on one or more distinct themes in the social sciences or humanities and be open to Canadian and international researchers as well as students, both graduate and, where appropriate, undergraduate.

Value:

Proposals may be for up to $5,000.

Eligibility:

All tenured and tenure-track faculty members in the Faculty of Arts at the rank of Assistant Professor or higher are eligible to apply to this program.

Eligible Expenses:

Eligible expenses include travel and subsistence fees (but not honoraria). Budget items must comply with the SSHRC research expenses eligibility guidelines. Please see the SSHRC web site for complete details:
